WHAT WE MUST DO

- Act in your best legitimate interests, with honesty, fairness and integrity. Ensure that our advice is timely and accurate.
- Do nothing to increase your costs unnecessarily. Keep accurate and complete records of your case. Do everything reasonably necessary to perform the services listed in this agreement where the services are not listed in full details.
- Provide you with advice about the processes, issues and legal requirements involved in applying for your application.
- Lodge the applications to DoHA, as prepared by us, with the supporting documentation, liaise with you as to necessary application, and inform of the result.
- Professionally prepare your Visa Application form, and any other forms incidental to the substantive application processes, send these forms to you for signature. Lodge these forms, with the required supporting documentation and fees to the appropriate DoHA office.
- Inform you of the outcome of your visa application.

WHAT YOU MUST DO

- Let us know about the changes to your circumstances that might affect your application, for example, marriage or the birth of a child. Advise us promptly if you change your address for more than fourteen consecutive days during the processing of a visa application.
- Provide us, in a timely manner, with documents and information that we need to act for you. Ensure that the information you give us is true and accurate. If you discover that information that you gave us is wrong, let us know at once so we can make the necessary corrections immediately.
- You should be aware that if DoHA discover that you, or anyone else, gave them information that was false or misleading in a material particular they can cancel your visa, even if you did not know that the information was false or misleading.
- Provide us with the documents described in the attached letters and Documents Listed or as per our request to you via our correspondences and telephone attendances, or our previous conference at the office.

Independent Legal Advice

- It is desirable for you to obtain independent legal advice in relation to this agreement before you sign it.

REGULATORY COMPLIANCE AND APPLICABLE LAW

Depending on the designated capacity of your representative as selected above:

a) If represented by a Registered Migration Agent (RMA):

This agreement is subject to the Migration (Migration Agents Code of Conduct) Regulations 2021 ("the Code"). The Client acknowledges that they have been notified of the Code of Conduct and have been provided with a copy of the official OMARA 'Consumer Guide' prior to or at the time of signing this agreement. A copy of the Code can be verified online at www.mara.gov.au.

b) If represented by a Legal Practitioner (Solicitor):

The representative is an Australian Legal Practitioner and does not operate under the OMARA regulatory framework. This document serves as a Costs Disclosure and Costs Agreement pursuant to the Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) and the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015.

c) No Guarantee of Visa Outcome (Applicable to both):

While the representative and Winzoy Legal will perform the agreed work with professional diligence and competence, the Client acknowledges that the firm cannot guarantee the successful approval of any visa application, as all final decisions rest solely with the Department of Home Affairs.

General Terms of Business

1 Billing Arrangements

All tax invoices are due and payable 30 days from the date of the tax invoice. You consent to us sending our tax invoices to you electronically at your usual email address or mobile phone number as specified by you.

2 Acceptance of Offer

You may accept the Costs Disclosure and Costs Agreement by:

- a) signing and returning this document to us or;
- b) continuing to instruct us. Upon acceptance you agree to pay for our services on these terms.

3 Interest Charges

Interest at the maximum rate prescribed in Rule 75 of the Legal Profession Uniform General Rules 2015 ("Uniform General Rules") (being the Cash Rate Target set by the Reserve Bank of Australia plus 2%) will be charged on any amounts unpaid after the expiry of 30 days after a tax invoice is given to you. Our tax invoices will specify the interest rate to be charged.

4 Recovery of Costs

The Legal Profession Uniform Law (NSW) ("the Uniform Law") provides that we cannot take action for recovery of legal costs until 30 days after a tax invoice (which complies with the Uniform Law) has been given to you.

5 Your Rights

You have a number of rights in relation to our legal costs, including a right to seek assistance from the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner.

6 Complaints

- (a) For Legal Practitioner (Solicitor) clients: You may make a complaint to the Office of the Legal Services Commissioner.
- (b) For Registered Migration Agent (RMA) clients: You have the right to lodge a complaint with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (OMARA).

7 Payment Methods

It is our policy that, when acting for new clients, we do one or more of the following:

- (a) approve credit;
- (b) ask the client for their credit card details.

Unless otherwise agreed with you, we may determine not to incur fees or expenses in excess of the amount that we hold in trust on your behalf or for which credit is approved.

8 Retention of Your Documents and Electronic files

- (a) Electronic Storage: We maintain a paperless office. By signing this agreement, you agree that we will store all documents and correspondence related to your matter in electronic format only.
- (b) Destruction of Hard Copies: Any hard copy documents provided by you or third parties will be scanned into our electronic filing system. Once scanned, the hard copies will be destroyed or returned to you at our discretion, unless we are legally required to keep the original.
- (c) Client Responsibility: If you require the return of original hard copy documents, you must notify us in writing at the time the documents are provided to us.
- (d) Archive Period: We will retain your electronic file for at least seven (7) years after the conclusion of your matter, after which we may delete the electronic data without further notice to you.
- (e) Cost of Retrieval: Should you request a copy of your electronic file during the retention period, we reserve the right to charge a reasonable administrative fee for the time spent retrieving and providing the data.
- (f) We are entitled to retain your documents while there is money owing to us for our costs.

9 Termination by Us

We may cease to act for you or refuse to perform further work, including while any of our tax invoices remain unpaid;

- (a) if you do not within 7 days comply with any request to pay an amount in respect of disbursements or future costs;
- (b) if you fail to provide us with clear and timely instructions to enable us to advance your matter, for example, compromising our ability to comply with Court directions, orders or practice notes;
- (c) if you refuse to accept our advice;
- (d) if you indicate to us or we form the view that you have lost confidence in us;
- (e) for any other reason outside our control which has the effect of compromising our ability to perform the work required within the required time-frame; or
- (f) for just cause.

10 Termination by You

You may terminate our retainer at any time by written notice. You will be required to pay all our outstanding professional fees and disbursements up to the date of termination.

11 Lien

We are entitled to retain by way of lien all your documents in our possession (including documents brought into existence by us in the course of the work) until all our costs have been paid.

12 Privacy

We collect personal information about you in order to provide legal services. If you do not provide us with the full name and address information required by law we cannot act for you. If you do not provide us with the other personal information that we request our advice may be wrong for you or misleading.

Depending on the nature of your matter the types of bodies to whom we may disclose your personal information include the courts, the other party or parties to litigation, experts and barristers, the Office of State Revenue, PEXA Limited, the Land and Property Information Division of the Department of Lands, the Registrar General and third parties involved in the completion or processing of a transaction.

We do not disclose your information overseas unless your instructions involve dealing with parties overseas. If your matter involves parties overseas we may disclose select personal information to overseas recipients associated with that matter in order to carry out your instructions.

We manage and protect your personal information in accordance with our privacy policy which can be found on our firm website or a copy of which we shall provide at your request. Our privacy policy contains information about how you can access and correct the personal information we hold about you and how you can raise any concerns about our personal information handling practices. For more information, please contact us in writing.

13 Sending Material Electronically

We are able to send and receive documents electronically. However, as such transmission is not secure it may be copied, recorded, read or interfered with by third parties while in transit. If you ask us to transmit any document electronically, you release us from any claim you may have as a result of any unauthorised copying, recording, reading or interference with that document, for any delay or non-delivery of any document and for any damage caused to your system or any files.

14 GST

Where applicable, GST is payable on our professional fees and expenses and will be clearly shown on our tax invoices. By accepting these terms you agree to pay us an amount equivalent to the GST imposed on these charges.

15 Governing Law

WINZOY LEGAL

Solicitors • Registered Migration Agents
ACN 675 741 036

Doc ID: WZL-00E2-F24C
Issued: 10/08/2026 21:25

The law of New South Wales governs these terms and legal costs in relation to any matter upon which we are instructed to act.

ANNEXURE A — DISCLOSURE OF INTERESTS

We disclose that we have received or will receive financial benefits (e.g., commission) as a result of providing non-migration advice to you in relation to:

- Health insurance
- Educational institutes or universities
- Use of credit card to make payment on your behalf

You accept that we are not providing expert advice in relation to the subject matter of any contracts or arrangements that are the subject of this Annexure, and, to the maximum extent permitted by law, we shall bear no liability to you or any third party resulting from the provision of advice under this Annexure.

ANNEXURE B — REFERRALS

Services Offered (if applicable):

- We have tie-ups with Australian educational institutions and agents. You are advised about related colleges with your desired course.
- We have tie-ups with health insurance companies. You are provided all insurance policy options and related charges.
- You acknowledge and agree that we are offered a financial benefit (e.g., commission amount) in providing referrals to the concerned companies.

ANNEXURE C — VEVO CONSENT FORM

I hereby acknowledge and give my express consent to all Registered Migration Agents ("Agents") and Legal Practitioners of Winzoy Legal Pty Ltd to access the Department of Home Affairs' Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service database.

This consent authorises the firm to obtain information regarding my visa status, study entitlements, and work entitlements prior to, during, or after my consultation. I further agree that the firm may continue to make regular, ongoing checks of my visa status and entitlements using the information provided by me including my passport number, date of birth, country of citizenship and any other information required for the purpose.

I have been duly informed and I understand that the information obtained through the Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service database will be used to:

- Check and determine my current visa status; and/or
- Determine my eligibility for application for any visa for entry into Australia; and/or
- Any other matters related to my consultation with the Agents.

I consent to the Agents continuing to make regular checks of my visa status or entitlements through the Department of Home Affairs' Visa Entitlement Verification Online (VEVO) service database throughout my consultation with them.

I understand that the Commonwealth may use information collected through the inquiry to determine if I am complying with my visa conditions and locate me if I am not entitled to be in Australia.
